

I have recently heard that the Consumer Bankers Association is attempting to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. I, as a resident citizen of Indiana, am opposed to any modification that will weaken or circumvent the existing law. The reduction in marketing/sales type telephone soliciting calls has been a great relief. I consider these telephone calls similar to e-mail SPAM. They are not requested nor wanted. I am asking the FCC to deny this request.